Chief Secretary

Dear Chief Secretary,

This is regarding celebrating Sanskrit Week from 7th to 13th August, 2014. To recognize and celebrate its vital role, Sanskrit Day is organized on the Shravan Purnima as per the Samvat Calendar every year since 1969 by various institutions across the country. Similarly, Sanskrit Saptah or the Sanskrit Week is celebrated every year since 2001.

This year the Sanskrit Day falls on the 10th August 2014. The Sanskrit Saptah will be celebrated from 7th to 13th August.

3. It has been decided to organize the Sanskrit Saptah in a befitting manner in schools across the country. You may, therefore, like to request the concerned authorities at the school, district and the State level to organize week long activities such as essay competitions, debates, Sanskrit text recitation, story-telling competitions based on classical Sanskrit books, stage dramas/dances, film shows and projects etc.

4. Functions at the State, District & other levels could be organized in convergence with the higher education departments and other institutions specialising in Sanskrit education or promotion of Sanskrit as a language.

5. I am sure that under your leadership and supervision, the Sanskrit Saptah will be celebrated in your State in a befitting manner.

6. A report highlighting some key/innovative activities undertaken in your State on the occasion will be highly appreciated, as it will help us compile a national report, incorporating State initiatives.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Rajarshi Bhattacharya
